Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Murray Widdis has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Murray was a registered pharmacist for 68 years, was a pharmacist with Lewis Drug for 33 years, and was Honorary President of the South Dakota Pharmaceutical Association in 1964; and,

WHEREAS, Murray joined the Masonic Lodge in 1924, Scottish Rite in 1946, crested a Shrine Noble on May 9, 1947, was president of Hi-12 in 1945, and was Worthy Patron of the Eastern Star in 1962; and,

WHEREAS, Murray has given much to South Dakota during his lifetime and it is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 19, 1990, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
